12:32:57	041C Kaushal	Thank you, Homnath Sir, for sharing the updates and vision. "Just speaking in favor of courageous watchdogs and whistleblowers who spoke against harassment: Our approach should be of thanking them from bringing out the issue. Publicly accepting it, recognizing it and responding with changes should be the way forward. The victims (and survivors) had to revisit their painful experiences when they wrote and spoke about the issues. We should start by appreciating their effort." Let's work together to solve it.

		BBC deposit: Why this year's financial is not available as previous year is available, information is poorly circulated , BBC needs to improve itself , poor interest rate compare to other cooperatives, no child support deposit fund made available when I visited BBC few months back, need to gain trust of already members to ensure more people to trust it.
